

PRIVACY POLICY

OUR COMMITMENT TO PRIVACY

The Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority (MPEA) values your privacy. We provide this policy (the "Privacy Policy") to explain our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used when you visit mpea.com, mccormickplace.com and ariecrown.com. This Privacy Policy is effective January 31, 2011.

The Privacy Policy describes how MPEA handles your personal information. Access to the websites operated by the MPEA is provided subject to the policy. Please read this document carefully as use of any one of the MPEA Websites constitutes acceptance of the Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with the terms of this Privacy Policy, your ultimate choice is to not use any of the websites operated by the MPEA.

THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT

PERSONAL INFORMATION

This policy applies to all information collected or submitted via the MPEA Websites. Certain pages allow you to order services, make requests, submit comments, register to receive materials or participate in promotions. The types of personal information that we may collect at these pages are:

- name
- address
- email address
- phone number
- payment information
- date of birth
- financial information (if you place an order through an MPEA Website)

If you are unable to provide this information, you will still be able to visit the MPEA Websites, however, you may not be able to register or make a purchase with the MPEA Websites.

We will not actively collect personally identifiable information about you unless you provide it to us voluntarily.

NAVIGATION INFORMATION

We also collect anonymous navigation information on our servers. Navigation information does not personally identify users. We use this information to help us track statistical data that allows us to make adjustments to our Websites and improve online services for our visitors. The navigation information we collect may include the following:

- the type of browser and operating system you are using;
- the address of the referring site and the website you visit when you leave one of our sites;
- the date and time of your visit;

- your server's IP address; and
- the address of the pages you accessed while visiting the MPEA Websites.

PASSIVE INFORMATION COLLECTION

A "cookie" is a text file that is stored on your computer. Cookies are technically unable to read personal information that may be stored on your computer. You can disable cookies on your browser, but may not be able to access portions of certain MPEA Websites. Most internet browsers also allow you to erase cookies from your computer hard drive or receive a warning before a cookie is stored. Please refer to your browser instructions or help screen to learn more about these functions.

On certain MPEA Websites, the MPEA uses session cookies to collect small pieces of information about those who visit the MPEA Websites. Session cookies are a line of text that is stored temporarily in your browser to ensure that you are recognized when you move from page to page within an MPEA Website and that any information you have entered is remembered. Session cookies are not stored on your computer and disappear when you close your browser. Without session cookies, items placed in a shopping cart will disappear by the time you reach the checkout.

We may use a third party traffic aggregator to compile aggregated statistics concerning the use of the MPEA's Websites, such as the time and date of a page view.

We passively collect information to understand what areas of the MPEA Websites are most popular, which areas may require improvement and what technologies are being used by our visitors. This information helps us to update and improve the MPEA Websites. We also use this information for security purposes, to detect and to block security breaches and to provide you with a safe online environment.

THE WAY WE USE INFORMATION

We use the information you provide when placing an order or a request only to complete that order or request. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete that order or request. We may also disclose information when we are required to do so by law, at the request of governmental organizations conducting an investigation, to verify or enforce compliance with the policies governing the MPEA Websites and applicable laws, to protect against misuse or unauthorized use of the MPEA Websites, when the safety of another individual is at risk, and in the event of sale, merger, liquidation, reorganization, assignment or other transfer of the business to which the information relates.

The MPEA may provide aggregate statistics about our customers, sales, online traffic patterns and related information to reputable third parties, but these statistics will not include any personally identifiable information.

LINKS TO THIRD PARTY WEBSITES

The MPEA Websites may contain links to third party websites, including those of our business partners and sponsors. However, we are not responsible for the privacy practices, content or operation of third party websites. We encourage you to review the privacy policies for each of these websites. Please direct any concerns regarding a third party website to the third party's site administrator or Webmaster.

You access and use third party websites, including the content, items, or services on those sites, solely at your own risk. You acknowledge and agree that the MPEA has no responsibility or liability for the availability of such external websites or resources or for the content, advertising, products or other materials available through such sites or resources.

OUR COMMITMENT TO DATA SECURITY

The MPEA uses industry standard practices to safeguard and secure your personally identifiable information, such as secure socket layer technology to encrypt all credit card, billing and other information you input on the MPEA Websites. We have also implemented appropriate physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

OUR COMMITMENT TO CHILDREN'S PRIVACY

The MPEA is committed to complying with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act. The MPEA does not knowingly collect or store any personal information, about children under the age of 13 on the websites subject to this Privacy Policy. If you are under the age of 13, you are not authorized to provide personally identifying information. If a child has provided us with personally identifiable information, a parent or guardian of that child may contact us via email at mcpngeninfo@mpea.com if they would like this information deleted from our records. We will use reasonable efforts to delete that child's information from our databases.

HOW YOU CAN ACCESS OR CORRECT YOUR INFORMATION

The MPEA does not collect personally identifiable information about you unless you are prompted to do so. Information submitted via non-authenticated applications such as online surveys, promotional entries and requests for information or newsletters cannot be changed or viewed after it is submitted. However, information you provide via an authenticated application may be changed or reviewed by logging in to the MPEA Website using your user-id and password.

You may send us an email at mcpngeninfo@mpea.com to request access to or to correct or delete any personal information that you have provided to us, as required by law.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY NOTICE

MPEA may modify, add or remove any portion of this Privacy Policy at any time, and such changes will be posted on the MPEA Websites.

CHOICE OF LAW

This Privacy Policy is governed by the laws of the State of Illinois. By using the MPEA Websites, you agree that the laws of the State of Illinois shall apply to such use; the venue for any dispute arising out of the use of the MPEA Websites shall be vested in the courts of Illinois; your use shall conform to all applicable laws and regulations of the State of Illinois; and that you will not violate the rights of any third parties.
